

I do make urgent calls, and it is problematical to wait 20 - 30 minutes before VRS interpreter is available for me to make a call. I want to have an option to choose a vendor that has best response time. After all, hearing people don't have to go through what we deaf people have to, and that's not equitable.